

Kiln Theatre

'ARRIVE BUILD CREATE' COLLEGE PRACTITIONER

Application Pack

"A marvellous community reality...alive with challenge and promise." James Baldwin

Kiln Theatre is the creative and cultural hub of Kilburn in Brent, a uniquely diverse area of London where over 140 languages are spoken.

We are a place of creative transformation and artistic ambition – an empowering space where community connection sits at the centre of everything we do. From the heart of Kilburn, we stage an internationally acclaimed programme of UK premieres and dynamic revivals - real human stories that entertain, fire the imagination and reflect the world around us.

As Tricycle and now Kiln, we are proud of our history and passionate about our future. We nurture talent and develop pathways whilst celebrating diversity and removing barriers – driving world-class theatre and opening up opportunities for who gets to make it.

"Kiln Theatre has revitalised the cultural life of Brent and brings world-class theatre at an affordable price to people from all walks of life." Zadie Smith

Under Artistic Director/CEO Amit Sharma, Kiln Theatre continues its reputation of producing world-class work that reflects the richness of its local communities and the wider world.

Kiln Theatre has a 292 seat theatre alongside a 291 seat cinema auditorium, a bar and restaurant plus two rehearsal spaces which are used for our productions, workshops and Creative Engagement projects.

We believe that theatre can be for anyone. A neighbourhood venue shaping national conversation.

The Purists designed by Tom Piper, Two Strangers (Carry a Cake Across New York) designed by Soutra Gilmour, Retrograde designed by Frankie Bradshaw and The Lonely Londoners designed by Laura Ann Price.

"I wanted to say thank you for creating the most diverse theatre I have been to. In terms of race, culture, class, age, everything – not only in the selection of shows and actors, but in the audience."

OUR VISION

To ignite artistic imagination through diverse storytelling that reflects the richness of our world. Kiln is a space where we celebrate our shared humanity, build a powerful sense of belonging and demonstrate that theatre can be for anyone.

OUR MISSION

From the heart of Kilburn, we tell real human stories shaped by exceptional artists – harnessing the power of creativity to remove barriers, celebrate individuality and bring people together.

OUR VALUES

Kiln is Representative. We represent diverse voices on and off our stage - including different perspectives and experiences in our decision making.

Kiln is Open-hearted. We create together and build trust by being kind, empathetic and welcoming - acting with warmth and integrity.

Kiln is Enterprising. We think creatively and act resourcefully to generate opportunities to support and grow our artistic ambitions.

Kiln is Courageous. We are daring, willing to take creative risks and push boundaries to make meaningful and relevant work.

Our values shape the way we work. They are key to unlocking our ability to ensure our work is accessible and relevant, that we make brave, bold choices, and that we maintain our integrity and empathy. They underpin the way we build and maintain our relationships with the artists, communities and audiences we make work with and for.

OUR PRIORITIES

KILN THEATRE

Kiln Theatre presents around six productions per year, many of these are commissioned and written specifically for this theatre or are programmed in collaboration with national or international companies.

Recent productions include Amit Sharma's critically acclaimed 5-star production of Retrograde by Ryan Calais Cameron, which transferred to London's West End, the Pulitzer Prize award-winning English by Sanaz Toossi (in association with the Royal Shakespeare Company), Peanut Butter and Blueberries (UK Theatre Award nominated for Best New Play) by Suhaiymah Manzoor Khan, Two Strangers (Carry a Cake Across New York), which transferred to the West End and then to the American Repertory Theater in Boston after a record breaking run at Kiln, Roy Williams' critically acclaimed adaptation of The Lonely Londoners (now one of Kiln's top selling shows of all time), and the sell-out revival of The Ministry of Lesbian Affairs by Iman Quereshi.

CREATIVE ENGAGEMENT AT KILN

Our award-winning Creative Engagement programme aims to champion the imagination, aspiration and potential of the Brent community young and old. We invest in creating meaningful relationships with young people to inspire and encourage their creativity, their confidence and self-esteem. We work with older people to create a thriving community around our theatre.

KILN CINEMA & EVENTS

Our 291-seat cinema shows the best art-house and mainstream films alongside festivals and special Q&A screenings. In our cinema auditorium we also host a year-round programme of talks, Q&A's, book launches and special events with some of the country's top artists, entrepreneurs, academics and writers.

FUNDING

Our annual turnover is approximately £4 million. Kiln Theatre receives funding from Arts Council England as a National Portfolio Organisation. Additional income comes from box office ticket sales and other commercial revenue streams, with a final sum generated through fundraising.

THE ROLE

Title:	'Arrive Build Create' College Practitioner
Location:	Kiln Theatre, 269 Kilburn High Road, London NW6 7JR
Department:	Creative Engagement
Reports to:	Learning Producer
Contract:	Freelance

Purpose and description of role

Kiln Theatre are looking for an 'Arrive Build Create' Lead Practitioner to join the team from September 2026 - April 2027. Arrive Build Create is a drama project, previously known as Minding the Gap, working within Brent schools and colleges, delivering creative sessions and outputs for young people newly arrived in the UK, which has been run by Kiln Theatre for over 20 years.

Arrive Build Create is a unique project providing a welcoming, creative and necessary space for the young people we work with to thrive. Kiln Theatre is often their first experience of creating and seeing theatre, supporting them to share their voices and realise their potential, regardless of challenges, barriers and precarity that they may be facing elsewhere in their lives.

"My heart is in the Drama. When I was little, is used to make plays by myself. Then I stopped. I never thought I would be able to do this again"

"I feel proud because I saw my friend acting - it was so nice!"

Participant Feedback

The College Practitioner will be responsible for the delivery of drama sessions with EAL students aged 16-18 and will lead on the creation of an end of term sharing in April 2027. We are looking for practitioners whose creative practice is aligned with the mission of Kiln Theatre and the Creative Engagement department to bring unheard voices into the mainstream and create theatre for all.

What you'll do at Kiln Theatre

The aim of Arrive Build Create's weekly workshops are to facilitate a space for newly arrived young people to express themselves, develop friendships, learn new skills, and feel that their voices are heard. Outputs are designed to give the groups an opportunity to share their ideas and produce work that they are proud of. The College Practitioner's key responsibilities and duties include:

1. Workshop planning

Complete all necessary preparation to ensure you facilitate inclusive, high-quality and engaging creative sessions and outputs. This includes:

- Planning each session in collaboration with the Project Assistant and Guest Practitioner(s) and sending a copy of this plan to the Learning Producer at least 48 hours in advance of delivery.

- Including a range of games/exercises to support:
 - o Participants with differing access requirements, levels of spoken and written English, Education and safeguarding requirements.
 - o Developing participants' confidence in spoken English through creative approaches.
 - o Participants to engage with Kiln Theatre and build their performance techniques, teamworking skills, sense of self pride and engagement with the arts.
2. Workshop Facilitation
- Deliver each workshop session in collaboration with the Project Assistant. This includes:
- Facilitating an inclusive, energetic and engaging workshop atmosphere
 - Working with the Project Assistant and Guest Practitioner(s) to deliver planned workshop activities
 - Creating a high-quality end-of-term sharing (no longer than 20 minutes per group) in collaboration with the Project Assistant.
 - Supporting participants in collaborative group work
 - Managing participant behaviour with sensitivity and respect
 - Providing pastoral support to participants as required
 - Being flexible in your approach to working with groups and open to receiving feedback on your planning and delivery
 - Liaising with teachers in-session in order to best support the participants and Kiln Theatre's engagement with the school and/or college.
3. Communication and administration
- Contribute to a culture of collaborative problem prevention and problem-solving by attending relevant meetings/events and reporting regularly to the Learning Producer. This includes:
- Attending a full day training and practice sharing and safeguarding sessions prior to project start
 - Attending 1 Planning and 1 debrief meeting per term with the Learning Producer and production meetings as required.
 - Completing a session debrief with the Arrive Build Create team and teachers directly after the session concludes.
 - Requesting any workshop resources via the Project Assistant at least one week in advance
 - Being proactive in communication with the Learning Producer, responding and communicating in an agreed time frame, completing and submitting all departmental processes such as debriefs and safeguarding procedures promptly.
 - Liaising with teachers in-session in order to best support the participants and Kiln Theatre's engagement with the school and/or college.
4. Safeguarding
- Kiln Theatre has a commitment to safeguarding all participants. The College Practitioner will undergo a DBS check and reference check prior to the role commencing. The College Practitioner will be expected to read and adhere to Kiln Theatre's Safeguarding policies and ensure correct procedures are always followed, including record keeping and escalation. The Assistant will participate in obligatory annual safeguarding training.
5. Monitoring and Evaluation
- Support the Project Assistant with recording qualitative and quantitative monitoring and evaluation data, as well as planning evaluation activities, with the support of the Learning

Producer for Kiln Theatre evaluation and reporting requirements.

About You (Person Specification)

You should have (essential):

- Experience of devising creative work with young people which amplifies their voices
- Desire and vision to create a vibrant, warm and creative workshop environment
- Experience of working in collaboration with other creatives to produce a performance-based sharing with young people.
- Enthusiastic about working within education and theatre settings
- Willingness to adapt workshop delivery and rehearsals to meet young people's needs
- Excellent communication and interpersonal skills
- Enjoys being part of a team
- Excellent timekeeping and organisation skills
- Commitment to inclusion and equality of opportunity
- Willingness to have DBS check and training including safeguarding

Bonus if you have:

- Experience working with young people with lived experience of migration, forced migration and/or with English as an additional language including participants who may have complex lives
- Knowledge of area and communities local to Kiln Theatre
- Independent artistic practice, particularly directing, devising or writing
- Knowledge or fluency in key languages of the young people we work with (Arabic, Pashto, Dari, Spanish, Portuguese, Tigrinya, Amharic, Gujarati, Ukranian)
- Lived experience of migration
