

Kiln Theatre presents

Nine Night

by Natasha Gordon

Show copy:

Some secrets don't make it to the grave

When Gloria passes, her family gathers for the traditional Jamaican Nine Night. And that means the whole family.

As more and more mourners gather bringing rum and curry and complaints, tensions build, and the family must face some uncomfortable truths.

'A spirit never wan fi leave de family home'; and there's still 8 days left...

Amit Sharma (Retrograde, Please Please Me) directs this brand new production of Natasha Gordon's critically acclaimed debut play celebrating the humour and hardships of grief.
